Group Exhibition SKY Opens Saturday, September 7, at Erin Cluley Gallery

[Dallas, Texas – August 29, 2019] ERIN CLULEY GALLERY is pleased to announce the exhibition SKY, opening on Saturday, September 7, 2019, at 150 Manufacturing St. Suite 210, with a reception from 5:00 - 8:00pm and on exhibit through October 5. The show features works from various artists depicting the sky.

Works will be included by:

KAREN GUNDERSON (Hudson)
FRANK MUJICA (Havana / Madrid)
NIC NICOSIA (Dallas)
RENÉ TREVIÑO (Baltimore)

Wonder for the sky has been ever-prevalent in human history. When ancient philosophers first started contemplating our place in this universe, they looked to the clouds for answers. The celestial motif has been interpreted over and over by various cultures, mythologies, and religions — portrayed in an assortment of roles as subject, habitat, storyteller, authority. Artists, too, have sought to capture its ethereal essence since the origin of the landscape. Whether a sunny day, a starry night, or a wondrous sunrise, the dreamy entity of the cosmos is a marvel that captivates and drives the desire to create.

About Erin Cluley Gallery

Erin Cluley Gallery is a contemporary art gallery representing emerging, mid-career, and established artists from Dallas and the United States. The gallery presents a provocative program of artists working in both traditional and alternative forms including painting, sculpture, new media, photography, sculptural installation and public intervention.

In 2014, Erin Cluley Gallery ignited a creative movement in West Dallas acting as a hub for visual arts and community engagement. After nearly five years on Fabrication Street, the gallery has moved its operation to Riverbend – a development in Dallas' Design District celebrating the intersection between culture and commerce.
